

The 2011 PA Apple ‘n Cheese Fine Art and Photography Show was the showcase for 196 pieces of art and photography 81 pieces of art were displayed and 115 photographs graced the walls of the Beautiful Manley-Bohlayer house on October 1 and 2.

An Artist’s reception was held on September 29th for all those who entered the show. This gave an opportunity to view the judged show and talk with fellow entrants. On September 30th a special open house was held for area senior citizens. This enabled the individuals who attended to enjoy the show in a less crowded and hectic setting.

Attendance was down at the festival this year due to the very wet weather. Thousands of people still came out to enjoy the festival and hundreds of people strolled through the show to admire the skills of the artists and photographers. 54 awards were given thanks to the sponsorship of the following:, Wal-Mart, Penelec/First Energy, Dandy Mini Mart, Citizens and Northern Bank, Pump and Pantry, Canton Elementary PTA, Chemung Canal Trust Company, Cheap Joes Art Stuff, Blick Art Materials, Stull’s Flowers and Gifts, Hidden Artist, First Citizens National Bank and Doc’s Irish Inn.

Winner of the raffle at the art show was Bobbie Jo Capinski of Pottstown, PA. She chose the watercolor print of the walk and gardens at Manley-Bohlayer.

Judges for the show were Bruce Dart in Photography and Pat Jackson in Fine Art.
